BEST PRACTICE NO – I

1. Title of the practice: 'Vaccination Drive' for Covid-19 Pandemic by Hooghly Women's College (HWC)

2. The context that required the initiation of the practice:

Educational institutes play an important role to serve the society at large. The Covid-19 Pandemic caused by Corona virus had made people panic-stricken and depressed. With increasing number of deaths, people were desperate to get vaccinated. So, our Institute took initiative to launch 'Vaccination Drive' programme for students, of our college. This made our students to avail the vaccine without facing any trouble and free of cost.

3. Objectives of the practice:

The objectives of this Programme were

- To ensure availability of vaccine for Covid-19 to the students of the college.
- To reduce the stress of the students, teaching and non-teaching staff of the college from finding centres for vaccination

4. The Practice:

In the Academic Session 2021-2022, our Institution organized 'Vaccination Camp' to ensure availability of vaccine for Covid-19 to the students of the college on 04.10.2021 from 11.00 am to 4.00 pm. A notice was circulated on 01.10.2021 on college website regarding the availability of 1st dose vaccine to the students born after 04.10.2021. The notice was also circulated in students WhatsApp groups. The teachers also encouraged the students to enroll their names for vaccination.

5. Evidence of success:

On the scheduled day, health workers from Chinsurah Hospital were present in the campus with vaccine kits. Police personnel were appointed by local police station to maintain the queue. The programme was conducted maintaining safe distancing, proper sanitization of college campus and all other Covid protocols. The programme was monitored by the principal (Dr. Sima Banerjee), teachers (Dr. Tanmay Dhibor, Dr. Uttaran Majumdar) and non-teaching staffs (Sri Jayanta Kumar Das, Sri Prabir Ghosh, Smt. Soma Das, Smt. Rupa Roy).

6. Problems encountered and resources used:

As it was conducted during Lockdown the students had to be contacted again and again over phone by the teachers. Some showed unwillingness to reach to college out of fear of contacting the virus. The teachers had to counsel the students to get vaccinated as initially they had inhibition regarding the vaccine.

7. Notes:

'Vaccination Drive' for Covid-19 Pandemic by HWC helped the students of the college to easily avail the vaccine free of cost. Economically backward students were specially benefitted as they got vaccinated without paying for it.

BEST PRACTICE NO - II

1. Title of the practice: 'Sky is the Limit: Explore Yourself'

2. The context that required the initiation of the practice:

Almost half of the students of our institution come from rural areas and many of them belong to minority community, they are introvert and shy. So the institution takes special care to draw out what is best in them. For this in the Academic Session 2021- 2022 the institution started 'Sky is the Limit: Explore Yourself' Programme to find the talents of our students.

3. Objectives of the practice:

The objective of this Programme were

- to find out the talents of the students
- to make the students confident in co-curricular activities as well

4. The Practice:

In the Academic Session; 2021-2022 our Institution started to motivate and encourage the students to participate in different competitions under the Programme 'Sky is the Limit: Explore Yourself'. The teachers started to provide information regarding different competitions held outside the institution. The students also showed interest to participate in these.

5. Evidence of success:

The best outcome came when one of the students; Rakhi Barman from Department of History received Global Level Prize Heartfulness Essay Event – 2021 organised by Heartfulness education trust Sri Ram Chandra Mission, UNIC for India and Bhutan. She received cash prize of 22,000/- along with souvenir and a certificate.

6. Problems encountered and resources used:

As it was conducted during Lockdown, the students, teaching and non-teaching staff of the college had to remain connected through online platform. The teachers had to work hard to keep the students focused to participate in different competitions.

7. Notes:

'Sky is the Limit: Explore Yourself' Programme has motivated many more students. They are encouraged to participate in different competitions and bringing accolades. Students look up to the achievers. They now share information regarding different competitions among themselves. They also approach the teachers for required help.
